

Index of risk factors to maintaining social distance and preventative hygiene

Relationship between index of risk factors and population density per ward

- Lower than average risk and population density
- Lower than average risk but higher than average population density
- Higher than average risk but lower than average population density
- Higher than average risk and population density
- Municipalities in Gauteng

Average risk: 24.5%
 Average population density per ward: 5837 p/sqkm

GCRO QoL V (2017/18)
 GeoTerralimage (2017)

